ABOUT THE EXHIBIT:
Capstone projects created by students in Introduction to Holocaust Studies (HUM 245), taught by Dr. Sören Hammerschmidt, are exhibited throughout the library. These capstone projects portray different aspects of the Holocaust in a variety of formats. Visit each piece to learn different perspectives of the Holocaust through each student created artifact.

HOW TO VIEW THE EXHIBIT:
Exhibit artifacts are located on all three floors of the library. This is a self-guided exhibit. Use the map to identify where each artifact is located. To further enhance your exhibit experience, complete the exhibit assessment. Before viewing exhibit artifacts, complete the pre-exhibit side. After viewing each artifact, complete the post-exhibit side. Please return your completed assessment to the Assessment Box at this location. Responses are anonymous. If you have any comments regarding this exhibit, please use the comment boxes located on each floor.

The Holocaust Studies Student Exhibit runs through the month of December during regular library hours and is open to everyone. For further details, please visit: http://mesacc.libguides.com/holocaust
